Dear Sam:

For Republican Eagles who were able to participate in the White House reception hosted by the President and Mrs. Reagan last evening, it was a very special event.

The reception symbolized for me, once again, the very close and special relationship which exists between the Reagans and the Republican Eagles.

Soon, Republican Eagles will once again honor the President and Mrs. Reagan at the Inaugural Anniversary Dinner Dance which is scheduled for February 3, here in Washington. The February dinner dance is the most significant Inaugural Anniversary event we have ever held, as it will be our last one recognizing the special ties between the Reagans and our group.

The Inaugural Anniversary Dinner Dance will also signal the beginning of a new campaign which will bring Republicans to a Presidential victory once again.

I am hoping for the largest turnout of Eagles ever for the 1988 Inaugural Anniversary Dinner Dance. We have too few opportunities to gather for fellowship and recognition of our President and the First Lady so I encourage you to plan to attend this special Eagle event.

So please, mark your calendar for February 3, and plan to attend the President's and Vice President's Inaugural Anniversary Dinner Dance.

Sincerely,

Keith

Keith L. Brown

P.S. As you may recall, assignment to the private dinner parties at the Dinner Dance is based on the date we receive your reservation. You have the opportunity to put your name at the top of the list by responding today indicating your plans on the enclosed reservation form. Thanks for your attention and response.
